

CORALWATCH

Longreach Country Universities Centre

Outback to Ocean Community Event

Tuesday 9 June 2026 5:30–7:30pm

Registration essential for catering purpose

- Keynote speaker Gregg Webb, a globally recognised expert on fossil and modern coral reefs
- Meet the CoralWatch team
- Learn about CoralWatch citizen science program and how to protect the Great Barrier Reef from home
- Lucky door prizes
- Family friendly event with childrens activities and free sausage sizzle

Register here

CORAL REEFS
Past Present Future

Exploring Coral Reefs Through Time and Change

This event is organised by CoralWatch as part of the Outback to Ocean tour - Exploring coral reefs through time and change. CoralWatch is a citizen science reef monitoring program at The University of Queensland, working with volunteers worldwide to increase understanding of coral reefs and climate change.

CoralWatch Outback to Ocean tour is proudly supported by the Queensland Government - Engaging Science Grants.

Queensland
Government

